

Jess Edward Howell Sr.

February 20, 1964 - June 16, 2024

Jess Edward Howell Sr., a beloved son, brother father, and friend, passed away suddenly, leaving behind a legacy of love and cherished memories. Born to Don Howell and Terry Howell, who preceded him in death, Jess was known for his kind heart and generous spirit.

He is survived by his son, Jess Edward Howell Jr.; his siblings, Teresa Howell, Tessie Howard, Jonathan Eddings, and Jennifer Nix; and his grandchildren, Haley Howell, Kristen Howell, and Jaxon Howell, who were the apples of his eyes. Jess also leaves behind several nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews, whom he loved beyond measure.

Affectionately known as "Big Bub," Jess had an unwavering love for his family and a remarkable ability to connect with everyone he met. Despite the challenges he faced after his stroke, which left him unable to speak, Jess continued to engage in profound and meaningful conversations through his expressive presence and warm gestures. His resilience and positive outlook inspired all who knew him.

Jess had a deep passion for the outdoors and a remarkable love for movies. His extensive movie collection rivaled that of any Blockbuster, reflecting his vast knowledge and appreciation of film. His room was a treasure trove of cinematic history, offering a selection that could satisfy any movie enthusiast. Jess Edward Howell Sr. will be deeply missed by his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him. His memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved him and the countless lives he touched.

A graveside service will be at 2:00 p.m. Thursday, June 20, at Walnut Grove Cemetery in Little Rock, Arkansas with Bro. John Chapman officiating.
