“ I have never had such a 'best friend' ever; Jewel was the most loyal, sincere, dedicated, honorable, God loving, caring and dependable prayer warriors ever. I always told her she would need me to help carry her crown in Heaven but being the humble person she was would reply, "No, I will need to help carry yours". What a testimony she had just thru the life she lived. Jewel, I love you and will miss you so much because I depended on your support so many times during hardships in my life. You will never be forgetton! Jewel, I love you. Sincere condolence to her family; I know they hurt and will miss her like Paul and me. I know Jewel would hope the life she lived will inspire all of her family to surrender their lives to the Heavenly Father she so earnestly served.

“ Thank you love and kindness.
She loved the Lord, the family, & her church and will be missed by all. Her greatest wish was for everyone she knew to make it to heaven. Lets all do our best to grant this wish.

“ If the world had more people like Jewel, it would be a pleasant better place. Her life was a shining example for all who were blessed to know her. Every one could see Jesus in her by the way she lived and treated others. She will always be missed. I lift her family and friends up to our Lord in prayer asking Him to comfort and bless each one.
