“ Bro Jim sat across the aisle from me at church every Sunday and Wednesday. He never failed to ask about my son Cody and my cousin Shelley and always had a concern for everyone around him. We joked around a lot, too. It was a comforting reminder when I saw the flowers Sister Connie placed in his "regular" seat at church Sunday - to me, that will always be his seat. He will be missed. Prayers for all the family.

“ "Jimmy Johnson" - the answer I've always used for the online security question - "Name your childhood best friend". We did it all together; baseball, basketball, shooting guns, throwing hookers in his old black chevy and my old pickup, double dating together with he and Betty. A wonderful guy and memories I will forever cherish. My love to Betty and family.

“ Sister Betty and Brother Jim are both very dear to my heart and Brother Jim will be greatly missed. I got to know Brother Jim a lot better after taking him to his doctor's appointments and teaching him how to use his new Dexcom G6 glucose meter. He worked very hard to get his diabetes under control and he did just that. His doctor's were very impressed by how much his numbers dropped and that he achieved the goal of being in a safe range. After a while...He would ask if we could stop by Popeye's Chicken on the way home from his appointments. He loved those Spicy Chicken Sandwiches! I will miss hearing his voice when he would call me to look up phone numbers or to come help change out his transmitter on his meter. He would tease me when he called (I can still hear his voice now) "Connie, it's the pest again." He was never a pest and I always made sure that he knew that. I was blessed to be able to help him and I will miss my friend. He was a deacon at Harmony Baptist Church for many years and his church family will miss him greatly. My love and prayers go out for Sister Betty, Jamie, Donnie and all the family. May God bless and comfort you all during this difficult time.

“ Jimmy, Betty, Grandpa (Johnny Campbell) Mom (Janet Oaks) Leon and Pat were sitting in the waiting room waiting for the doctor to tell us something about Emilie (Jimmy's Mom). It was cold that day and said something about being cold. Mom said her jacket was out in the car so I went out and got it. I met everyone back in the waiting room and began to sit down. I jumped up and said "Ouch, something stuck me!" I felt around and didn't see anything so I began to sit down again. I jumped up and said "Damn something stuck me again!" Jim started laughing and would not quit while I was searching for what was sticking me. I told him it was not funny and kept searching. Finally I found it, Mom was heming this coat and had not finished it. It was several straight pins. Jimmy was still laughing. I've never seen him laugh so much. It became a joke after that.
