“ Jo Ann and I met in church in Rupert, Idaho but became closer friends when we worked together at Burley Processing plant. I spent several months living with them in 1958-59 seasonal run. I was from Missouri so would go home for summer months. JoAnn and I used to go shopping together and loved finding dresses that would match. We shared a lot of future dreams at that time and she met Rollie and fell in love with him. She was on my mind today, and looked up her on net and discovered she'd died in April. I felt grief of a loss of a friend. Lorene
