“ I have visited Mr. John for several months at Riverchase. I so enjoyed his stories about farming, pear trees and cows. He would keep me laughing and would laugh and enjoy his many memories. He loved his family, farm and God. He once told me that when he was young that he liked the pretty girls, but some of the other boys did not realize that it was more than a pretty face. He did, but he got the best of both! I am sure that they are rejoicing in heaven together. Mr. John will be missed. God bless you all.

“ Jerry and your brothers and sisters I am very sorry to hear about the loss of your Dad. I know that he left a great legacy in his children. Jerry, you are without a doubt the finest man I have ever known. It says a lot about your Dad and Mom how all of you turned out. You all are a fine family. Again I am sorry about Wes. I love you, Jerry.
