“ We will never know why God chose to take you from our world on that December day. But I know in my heart that he's made you his angel and a guardian angel for those who remain here. You were a wonderful man and friend to so many. You will be so missed but be assured your memory and legacy will carry on.

“ Words cannot express the sadness I feel for all of you! God knows when there's someone who needs him and He's there to help to see you through. He's with you now, here's hoping His love brings you comfort and helps you through the next few days. We pray the grief you share, that you will remember God is there for all of you. Our blessed hope is that we will all be reunited with our loved ones one day. "I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you." John 14:18 So sorry for your loss.. The Lord works in ways we don't understand but things are in His hands & I don't know of a better caretaker. Love you Grandpa and Grandma Schulz

“ To Brandi and the family, I am so sorry for your loss. It saddened me when I got the call last week and heard the awful news. My hurt is hurting for all of you. Brandi and Rhonda, you are not blood family but I love you both as if you were. Brandi, cherish each memory that you shared with him, rememeber the good times, focus on that. I know that he loved you so much. I still think about him being at the house this summer and us all swimming, laughing and having a good time (watching him try to surf on the knee board in the pool), jumping on the inflatable whale, such great times and great memories.

I pray that God will give you comfort during this difficult time. I pray that you will feel God's arms wrap around you holding you when you feel all alone. I'm here for you always if you need anything. God Bless you and the entire Crabtree family. Love, Tricia (Aunt TT) & David
