“ My heart goes out to the Bruck and Haines families at the loss of Joe. I knew him best as a Troop 31 Boy Scout, a troop he shared with both his younger and older brother.

I was closest with Joe's brother Mike, one of my best friends. We spoke about every 3-4 years, and Mike would always give glowing updates with big brother pride on all 3 of his siblings, Joe, Bean (Jeanie) and Tj. He loved them dearly!

“ I worked with Joe at Grandeur for 20 plus years and when i first started there they always took up money to buy Christmas gifts for the bosses well Joe new my sister and i didn't have the money to contribute so he put our part in. Then my grandson at the age of 14 was badly burned and was in the burn unit for several months Joe being the kind compassionate man that he was went to Childrens Hospital and handed my daughter 100.00 to help her out. Joe was a kind and generous man. I will miss him.
