“ Met Mr. Howsley while he was a patient at CARTI in Conway. I had fun teasing him about his "Packer" cap. Each day we would talk about Brett Favre's games. My prayers are with the family. I was blessed to have our paths cross for a short while. God bless you all

“ Uncle J.W. was always one of my favorite uncles. I never remember seeing him when he wasn't smiling. Although we did not get to see each other often he was always someone who treated me like I was important to him. I think he treated everyone that way. His service to his country during WWII was something I shared proudly with my children. When Veteran's Day came around every year we always thought of Uncle J.W. We will miss him greatly.
