“ Dear Marvelle, Johnny, and Karen,
I am so sorry to hear of the passing away of Junior today and regret that I was not able to attend the funeral. I have so many fond memories of visiting with and working with him. He was a true neighbor and one who you could always depend on when you needed anything. I remember when my dad decided to build a barn on the farm, Junior jumped in and helped us put it up without being asked. That was just the kind of person he was.
May God bless and comfort you all,
Eddie Brown

“ Our family was saddened to hear of Juniors passing. He was a wonderful man that we loved. We have all spent many a day at the baseball field together and he will be missed greatly. Kipp always talks about him running the bases with his team back in the day.
You are all in our thoughts and prayers and we love you all.
