“ Kenneth and I shared a lot of childhood times together growing up with our families in the Conway and Morrilton areas. We were related and with him being my cuz our families spent a lot of time together. Ken being younger than me and his brother Floyd like to aggravate and prank us at ever chance (He never changed). After our Teen years Ken went into the military and moved so we lost contact for thirty somewhat years. When I retired my wife and Grandson moved from White Hall, Ar. to our favorite fishing hole, Lake Atkins. To my surprise I was told a man named Kenneth Vinson had bought Lucky Landing Boat Dock, sure enough it turned out to be my cuz. Kenneth and his family here at the lake was a blessing to me and my family. God truly blessed me by allowing us to spend these last few years together. Deuteronomy 8:10
