“ My dear sweet cousin, We spent so many wonderful years together growing up, chasing and riding horses. We loved mud riding and spending as much time as we could as kids in the woods and exploring things we should and probably some things we shouldn't have. You will always be my baby cousin. I love you now and I always will. I miss you terribly. I know you are in a much better place and I will see you again someday. I make this wish for you that you are happy and dancing with the angels. Heaven has certainly gained another angel. Love and many hugs, your cousin, Deb

“ I remember well when you were born. Graduating from high school and subsequently being drafted into the Army took me away from Arkansas so I did not know you personally as you grew up. I did get a chance in recent years to see you a couple of times at your moms house. I know you are greatly missed by your family and cousins.Bob Rainbolt
