“ I just want you all to know how very sorry I was to hear of Lambert's passing. He was a special friend in my life. You could always count on him to put a smile on your face with his "homespun" humor. I was blesse to be able to see Lambert at Jones Café the day before his death. I will cherish the hug I received when he got up to leave. Little did I know that would be my last "good-bye" to him. I held the door for him as he walked out on his walker telling him to "take care of yourself". A bittersweet memory I will cherish. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers. May God grant you peace during this difficult time.
