“ Larry was a hard working man who I have admired all my life. Many memories of him come to mind. So fitting he will be buried in Beeson Cemetery close to Daddy. They thought so much of each other. I remember well doing pretty good at Daddy's funeral until I looked out and saw Larry on the front row... I lost it... It showed just how much he loved OV. Prayers for you Berthy, Tammy, and Jimbo and family. I wish I could be there to be on the first row in person, but will be there in spirit. God bless you and God bless Larry Donald...
