

Larry Wayne Lachowsky

June 18, 1950 - December 27, 2025

Larry Wayne Lachowsky of St. Vincent, Arkansas, passed away on December 27, 2025, at the age of 75. He was born on June 18, 1950, in Conway, Arkansas. Larry's life was marked by a deep sense of dedication and service. After graduating from Conway High School in 1968, he enlisted in the Army and bravely served in Vietnam with the Signal Corps. Upon returning home, Larry pursued his passion for education and eventually opened a successful surveying company in Conway County after attending the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville and the NW Vocational School for Surveying. His commitment to education extended to teaching surveying at the University of Arkansas Community College in Morrilton, where he dedicated himself until his retirement in 2013.

In addition to his professional pursuits, Larry found joy in simple pleasures. He had a profound love for reading, cherished all genres of music—particularly the Beatles—and found solace in riding his motorcycle through the Arkansas countryside. Above all, he treasured moments spent with his beloved family, especially his grandchildren.

Larry is survived by his devoted wife of 56 years, Patricia Noll Lachowsky of St. Vincent; his loving daughters, Natalie Andrews and husband Allen of Morrilton, and Vanessa Falcinelli and husband Michael of Cabot; his cherished grandchildren, Claire and Chloe Andrews, and Luke, Sam, and Audrey Falcinelli; his brother, James Lachowsky; his sister, Carol Thomasson and husband Bruce; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and other dear family and friends. He was predeceased by his parents, Arnold Lachowsky and Ruby Stapleton Lachowsky.
