“ Larry was my mother's youngest brother. He was more like a cousin to me because we were so close in age. My empathy to Marge and my cousins.

“ Larry was a friend and a mentor. He taught us all how to live and to love by his examples. I'm left handed so he always had a joke about about doing things with the "wrong" hand. Larry is now sitting at the "right" hand of Jesus. Larry you will be missed but rest assured your legacy will live on in the many lives that you have touched. Until we meet again my friend!!!
