“ Larry, you and I have come a long way since back in the day when we first knew who each other actually was. You were one of a kind, great, athletic guy who used to easily beat me in basketball. But, I really respected the MAN you became after your accident, the way the stood during your wedding to Nikki. And taking care of those kids. And blessing more children through adoption! I will NEVER forget the GOOD MAN Larry Tiner was. God bless you Brother and I will see you someday soon.

“ Nicky, I am up too late on FB and just saw where a friend had posted this sad news of Larry's dying on Sunday. I am so very sorry for all of you in your devastating loss of your husband and the children's beloved daddy. Words seem empty right now but please know that I am thinking of all of you right now. I am sure Glenda was right there to welcome him home to Heaven and that he has a brand new body and is at eternal peace with the Lord. May God comfort you and the children with only that peace that passes our understanding and give you super natural strength during these sad times. I also pray that all your good memories of your time together will fill your remembrances in the days ahead. Lean on our Lord and your loving birth family now and indays that come. I love all of you,

“ Hearing of Larry's passing, has brought back some fond memories of him when we grew up together. One that comes to mind was from second or third grade. The thought of it puts a smile on my face. How could a little boy in grade school skip his first few days of school? And, be resourceful enough to spend those days hid underneath a large magnolia tree, in someone's front yard, across from Northside Elementry School, before Mr. Turner discovered him. Larry was that kind of kid. Not really knowing Larry the last 30 years, it sounds as though, he never lost his resiliency nor his resourcefulness.
