Leatrice Bearden Reynolds, age 99, of Morrilton, took her last breath on earth and her first breath in Heaven Friday afternoon, June 21, 2019. She was born April 4, 1920, in Morrilton, a daughter of the late James Carroll Bearden, Sr. and the late Nellie Jane Kemp. She was the widow of Foy Elbert Reynolds. “ What a beautiful person Leatrice was-inside and out! She will always be remembered with much love. We both lived at Good Shepherd, and she was known and loved by many. She will always have a special place in my heart till we see each other in heaven.

“ I love Leatrice Reynolds. She and my Mother were best friends and grew up together in Morrilton. They double dated together with their future husbands. They always made their husbands take them to Browns Corner Drug store Fountain for ice cream. Leatrice baby sit me from time to time. I always loved going to her house on childress street. Her son Steven and I had some good times. Every time I would visit Morrilton over the years she would make it a point to visit with me at Mother's house. I had a my last chance to visit Leatrice 2 months ago to celebrate her 99th birthday. I am saddened that I will not get to celebrate her 100th but that is selfish of me to want her back knowing she would be sick. I will get to see her again someday. Thank you God for Leatrice and having her a part of my life. She was quiet a woman!!!!

“ I love Leatrice Reynolds. I knew her all my life. She and my Mother were best friends and grew up together in Morrilton. I am glad I went to see Leatrice just 2 months ago to help celebrate her 99th birthday. I know I am selfish in saying I want her back here, feeling and being healthy, with us to celebrate her 100th birthday next year. Thank you Leatrice for the wonderful memories. They are priceless. I am so thankful to God for placing you in my life. Thanks to her daughter Judy for allowing me to be a part of her life these past few months. I will cherish my memories of Leatrice forever.

I Love You Leatrice
