“ Almost 2 decades ago, I met this wonderful woman online in a forum. I knew her as "Dolly" and we spent many years exchanging posts. We've argued politics, shared recipes as well as the ups and downs of our lives, marriages, divorces, births, health and family issues and sadly even the passing of loved ones. She was feisty, she was funny, she was so very wise, and she had a heart bigger than Texas and could jerk a chain in you in no time flat. I treasured the time I got to meet her in person and spend time with her. I - and so many others - loved her. She will be missed greatly.

“ I met Marlene online at the Whimsey forum. We called her Dolly. I enjoyed reading her posts. We had a lot in common. She was a loving, wise woman. She loved her family so much and mentioned them often. I am thankful I got to know her. God bless her family.
