“ Thinking about the times spent with Linda, from the red house in the Portland bottoms to the house on 92 where Rene had to have a feather in her hand and was always pulling feathers out of the pillows and loved to feel of Jimmy's beard to the house on Parker street and to the house on Jordon Lane where we once again became neighbors where our kids played in the street and we treated our kids like they were our own, so many good memories and a lot of laughs over cups of coffee, the last time I saw you , you was sleeping soundly with your fur babies protecting you..Go rest now your work is done, you will forever be missed
