“ I did not get the chance to meet my husband's cousin Lisa Carol. But he talked about her all the time. Especially about the time she locked him (Skeeter), Julie and Rita out of the house during a rain storm. They had on their socks and they were sopping wet. She finally let them inside the house before the parents came home and even dried their socks so no one would know what had happened. He has lots of memories of his time in Arkansas with his Uncle Jay and his cousins, Lisa, Rita and Julie. God bless you all and my He give you comfort and peace during this time of sadness and grief. Sylvia, Skeeter, Wanda and Tim Miller

“ Lisa was the kindest person. Ive seen help so many people who down on their luck. (Including Stray Animals).She loved her daughter and grandkids so much, she was always bragging on them. I met her as my boss. A boss who gave me my self confidence to thrive at my job. She even baked me birthday cakes on my birthday along with others even though she wasnt allowed to eat them. She became one of dearest friends outside of work we would attend haunted houses during Halloween with gang and she thought it was hilarious how big of a scaredy cat I was. She will greatly missed. Even though she is in a better place. My thoughts and prayers to her family through this difficult time.

“ She was a wonderful person with a giving heart. Always helping others. She was a very good boss that was fair and understanding. I so enjoyed her company. A smile that never stopped even in the face of troubled water. She love her sweet family so very much. I know she is dancing in heaven free of her illnesses. God blessing and peace be with her loved ones. She will be greatly missed especially for her can do attitude.

“ *Lisa Westbrook, the prettiest girl ever.
I remember she would come over to twirl with Debbie and I would sit, mesmerized at their beauty and talent.
It seemed like our lives intertwined a lot.
Lisa, Rita & Julie would hang out on Roland rd with Debbie, Dana & myself messing with the horses.
I'll never forget Lisa Carol.
My condolences to you all.
Rita & Julie, life will forever be different. Remember this, the bond between sisters last through eternity. She's with y'all every step of the way. God bless your family.*
