“ I am so sorry to hear about your great loss.

Lloyd always made me smile or laugh out loud when he was a patient at Dr. Engelhoven's clinic. I respected him and was glad I had the opportunity to know this joyful man for a while.

I am sorry I wasn't able to attend the funeral but know I'm thinking about you and remembering you in my prayers.

*Sincerely,
Mary Moore Quarles*

“ Dean and Kenny, we are sorry about your loss of Lloyd. We know he will be greatly missed by you and all of your family and friends. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. It is comforting to know that he is now in heaven. Even though there is a great emptiness inside now, it will lessen over time, but you will always have that spot that is never completely filled.

“ Dean and Kenny. I'm so sorry to learn of the passing of Lloyd. I know that my Dad thought highly of Lloyd and enjoyed his friendship during the time they worked together at Arkansas Valley Wholesale. I know that you will really miss him but God will help you through this difficult time. We will keep you in our prayers and please do not hesitate to call us if we can be of any assistance to you.

“ Dean, We all were, of course, touched by Lloyd's faithfulness; I would like to remember him in his role as the leader of the ushers at church. We had never had a teenager as a regular when he asked Matt to join in his group of weekly ushers. We really appreciated his confidence in Matt and we believe that this was Matt's first glimpse of service in God's house and as you know with that nudge from Lloyd he began this path of service. He has now chosen to be a minister beginning with his first appointment as youth paster at our church. Men like Lloyd have been a great example for all of us to emulate. I am praying for you all.

“ Dear Dean, Kenny, and family
Last summer when my mom died the last thing I wanted to hear was about everyone elses experiences when their loved one passed away. I will say though that I stood then where you are standing now and I will just go on to say that I know there is an emptyness and an deep hurt in you right now. God is already filling it though because you have that certain hope that only He and His Word can give us. He will continue to fill it with the knowledge that Jesus left this world to prepare a place for us and that Lloyd is now sitting at His feet enjoying His presence in a way that we can only long for. Please know that we will be praying for God's peace for you and that we love you very much.

“ Dean & Kenny;

My most sincere condolences on Lloyd's passing. He has surely entered God's kingdom and is now walking the streets of gold. I have nothing but fond memories of Lloyd as I grew from a child into an adult at First Assembly and always remember his quick wit and even quicker smile. I pray for comfort for your family and know that you are in my thoughts.

God Bless You! ~ Rhonda

“ Dear Family,

I am sorry to learn of the loss of your loved one. God's word at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 encourages us to comfort others just as our heavenly Father comforts us. It is truly comforting to reflect on Jesus' compassion for mankind when he was on earth. On many occasions he proved that he has the power over death when he brought ones back from the sleep of death. Lazarus, his friend was one that touched him deeply. He wept.(John 11:35) He felt the same type of pain that we feel at the loss of our loved ones. Jesus raised him so that others would know that he had been sent by his Father. (John 11:42) We have the wonderful promise that death will end. (Revelation 21:3,4) There will be a resurrection.(John 5:28,29) Please accept this sincere condolence.
