“ Uncle Fay, We were not ready for you to leave us but God was ready for you to be near him. I will always keep you in my heart, and be thankful of the time I had with you. My life wont be the same without your contagious laugh and tender heart. If I'd known the last time I saw you would have been the last, I would have hugged you a little tighter, and told you how much I loved you. I'm so thankful you arent hurting anymore.

“ My prayers are with the family. Hold on to the good memories. Fay had a heart of gold. As long as mom was at home, he stopped by at least once a week and visited with her. That meant the world to her. He will be missed.
