“ There will never be a man greater in my eyes than my Daddy and Lonnie. I wish for everyone a man like Lonnie in their life. Lonnie made each day I spent with him brighter. He loved the Lord and served him daily, he is in Heaven and left us a flood of memories.

“ Brother Lonnie...you and your family will always have a special place in our hearts. You have been such an inspiration and friend over the years. I loved hearing your stories (especially the ones about the Island hunting..and the bears)....rest now from your illness...no more fears..no more darkness..just peace and comfort in the presence of your Lord...sing with the angels Bro. Lonnie...Prayers for comfort to Agatha, Gwen and Greg and other family members.
