“ Louis was my childhood friend. We went to school together, were in the MJHS and MHS bands together, and along with Butch Green and Danny Stone, we roamed the hills of Solgohachia together. One thing I could always count on when I was with Louis is I knew I would be having fun and laughing. He was a practical joker and loved to tease. He is and always will be my friend and I look forward to seeing him, again up there with our Lord. Until then, Louis will always be with me in my memories. My condolences to his family.
