

Lounes Wilburn

February 25, 1934 - April 9, 2010

Lounes "Slick" Wilburn, 76, of Clinton, passed away Friday, April 9, 2010. He was born February 25, 1934, in Nashville, Tennessee, to L.L. Wilburn and Lilly May Taylor Wilburn. He was the widower of Barbara Wilburn, an Army veteran, brick mason and of the Baptist faith.

He is survived by two brothers, Jack Wilburn of Clinton and Terry Wilburn of Texas; four sisters, Sandra Frazier and Brenda Stewart both of Texas, Beth Bishop of Tennessee and Pauline Wilson of New Hampshire. Several neices and nephews.

Graveside services will be 10:00 a.m. Monday, April 12, at Wye Mountain Cemetery with Bro. Gary Frazier officiating. The family will receive friends 5-7 p.m. Sunday, at the funeral home. Arrangements by Harris Funeral Home of Morrilton.

Tribute Wall

“ Lounes Wilburn

January 30, 2023 at 03:08 AM

“ Round,

I will love you always.. you and Aunt Barbara are together again and I know that has been a long time coming! You are in so many of my childhood memories.. you that dog candy and Aunt B. I am glad that I was able to tell you how much you meant to me the last time we spoke... I will cherish that memory for years!

I pray that you rest in piece and know that you are forever loved and missed.

Your neice.. "Toot"

May 28, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ I'm Slick's Bother-in-law, was married to Paulette, Slick's sister, until she passed away in 2002, due to breast cancer. It has been alot of years since I've seen Slick, but we lived a long way from him and his family in Arkansas. I have alot of memories from years back and am sorry I can't be there to be with the immediate family. May the Lord comfort you all.

Love, Don

April 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ Lynette, I am so sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in God's love. ”

April 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM