“ Dear Family of Lynn Ross:

I just learned of his death a week ago, and now someone in the family has sent me a clipping from the Democrat. I went on-line to read more. My condolence to the family: he and my older brother (John Bland) were friends as children as well as cousins. I recognized his name, and I loved his mother, Aunt Lillian, who was my father's sister.

May God bless you and carry you through your time of loss.

Sincerely,

Pat Durmon
