

Mamie Sue Bartlett Berkemeyer

August 22, 1935 - January 13, 2018

Mamie Sue Bartlett Berkemeyer, age 82, of Atkins, passed away Saturday, January 13, 2018. Sue was born on August 22, 1935 to Bill and Artie Bartlett in Morrilton, Arkansas.

Other than her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, John Henry Berkemeyer and two brothers; Donald Bartlett and Billy C. Bartlett. She is survived by many nieces and nephews.

She was a member of the Church of the Assumption in Atkins. She was a member of the Parish council and parish Finance Council. She was a member of the Altar Society where she served as coordinator for all funeral meals. Sue spent many hours of her time volunteering for many projects at the Church. Sue was very active in Atkins. She was instrumental in founding the organization, People for a Better Atkins (PBA). She was honored as Atkins Citizen of the Year. She was a member of the Atkins Lion Club, Atkins Jaycettes, Atkins Civic Team and Atkins Extension Homemakers.

Her sense of Civic Pride and duty extended to Pope County and the State. She was a constant volunteer with the Pope County 4H Program. She was a member of the Board of Directors of Pope County Farm Bureau, Women's Committee and State Safety Committee at Farm Bureau.

Sue loved spending time with her friends. She never turned down an opportunity to play dominos or any board game that involved food, fun and friends. She was an excellent cook and was always baking and cooking.

Sue was a completely selfless person. She never wanted to "put anyone out" on her account. This became even more evident during her long stay at Brookridge. She never complained and was always cheerful and loving. She loved her family at Brookridge and she will be missed by all.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Church of the Assumption in Atkins.

Services will begin at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, January 17, at St. Mary Catholic Church in St. Vincent. Jim Carfagno of Atkins will begin by leading the Rosary. Rev. Ernest Hardesty will celebrate the Funeral Mass immediately following the Rosary. Interment will be in Elmwood Cemetery following the Mass by Harris Funeral Home of Morrilton. Pallbearers are Sean Rehm, David Pelto, Craig Bailey, Joe Cannon, and Ronnie Sponer.
