“ We did not know your loved one, but we have had difficult times like you're going through right now. My wife and I lost two sons in past years, one was 20 the other 21 and we miss them. In a big family it's good to remember that everyone grieves differently, and does so at their own pace. Although the pain of loss affects everyone, I can assure you that as time passes you will be able to think more on the good times that you had together and less about Marcus being gone. It is always good to hear people remember and name the one you've lost. Marcus will not be forgotten by friends and I hope they'll have the courage to talk of her with you. May God comfort you.

“ I moved to Morrilton in the second grade and my parents sent me to Ms. Dixie's Daycare after school, where I met Marcus a little over twenty years ago. We became good friends and like any two people we grew up and we didn't see each other all of the time. But when we did reconnect on those times it seemed like no time had passed and we would catch up. I will miss him very much in this life. I am sorry that he is gone from us. I know the last conversation that we had was brief lasting only a few minutes but we discussed how strange it was to be "Dads." Marcus was a great and loyal friend with whom time knew no concept and I am blessed to have known him.
