“ Ron and Gereta, Jennifer and Matt:
I remember Marcus so well. He stayed with Kim and me in our home in Sunnyvale for a couple of weeks in 1998. Later, while he was staying with the pastor of our church, I received a call that he was not feeling well and went to check in on him. As a result of that visit I determined that he needed more definitive diagnostic workup and drove him to the Stanford Medical Center ER. Thus began this difficult chapter of Marcus' life.
The memories I have of him from our time together still are powerful 25 years later. He was a true gentleman, a brilliant young man, a gentle soul, and had a wonderful sense of humor. We thoroughly enjoyed his company while he was in our home!
I know you share with me the hope and assurance that Marcus is now in the presence of our Lord, wholly healed and completely full of life and joy.
I will always remember Marcus and I look forward to the day I hear his voice in the Kingdom.

“ *Marcus was such a great young man, he was always at Church with his Family.
He always had a smile for everyone when you stopped and chatted with him.
He would make comments during Sunday School Classes through his Parents.
They explained he was a very smart and highly educated man before his illness.
He will definitely be missed by all of us.*
