“ This old house has never felt so empty...I miss you Momma...the Bible tells us to rejoice when someone dies, and to cry when someone is born. We have it backwards, of course! I'm thankful to God for allowing me to take care of you, and for Him carrying me when I was so tired I didn't feel like I could go on. Even though my heart is broken over your loss I also rejoice in knowing that your body rests in peace, and your soul is back with God...The suffering for you has ended...Now it's time for our suffering, living without you! Till we meet again precious Momma I love, and miss you more than words could ever convey.
