“ Having known Mrs. Butterfield only six years, she has always spoke with dignity and respect to me. She had given me comfort when my mother passed of a year ago and I had grown attached to her graciousness. My sincere condolences to Richard and the entire family with the loss of Marion and you should know that if anything I could add, it would be that she has the best wit, especially when we went to "bingo" together, unforgettable charm! I will miss her dearly , we will see her again...!
