“ Although we met only once, here in California, we will always remember such a lovely lady. Her sister, Kathleen, is our sister-in-law and we know how much love there was in your dear family. As long as there are memories, she will never really be gone. May God bless each one of you.

“ *Dear Cousins,
Am truly sorry to hear of the loss of your mom. She was well loved by us all and I will always think of Aunt Maureen very warmly and remembered how much she cared for and loved the family. I look forward to meeting her again in heaven. But for now am grieving with you. Love to you all, Pam*
