

Marlene Mikkelsen Wise

October 27, 1932 - October 31, 2013

Marlene Wise died at her home in Casa, Arkansas, Wednesday, October 30, 2013. Marlene was born in Elberta, Utah, October 27, 1932, to Rosalie Clayson and Leonard Mikkelsen. During World War II her father was recruited to work for DuPont at the Manhattan Project near Richland, Washington where Marlene graduated from Columbia High School. Married for a short time to William Vaughn, later divorced. She married Reo Wise in 1962 in Richland Washington. For many years Marlene worked in accounting while Reo owned a restaurant in Seattle, Washington. Reo and Marlene enjoyed their home in Casa for the last 33 years.

Marlene was a very talented seamstress, spending many days in her sewing den. Her creations won many prizes at the county fair and graced the homes of friends. She was active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints where she served the children, young and adult women. She is now looking forward to meeting Reo in Spirit Paradise to continue their relationship.

She was preceded in death by her sister LaDene Mikkelsen Winsor, brother L. Ray Mikkelsen of Dalles, Oregon, and parents. Survived by brothers, James A. Mikkelsen and Jerry C. Mikkelsen of Kennewick, Washington, and a sister Irene M. McAllister of Salt Lake City, Utah.

Funeral services will be 12:00 noon at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints with Bishop Martian Peterson officiating. Burial will be at Liberty Cemetery near Adona, by Harris Funeral Home of Morrilton. The family will receive friends for 30 minutes prior to service time at the church.
