“ My deepest sympathies to the family. Mary and Herschel were both loved and some of the kindest people I have ever known. I am so happy to have been their friend and family. My husband Larry had a great affection for Herschel and Mary and I did too. I miss them and sorry that I didn't get one more visit before they passed into eternity. May they rest in peace. Prayers for the family in the loss of your sweet mother, grandmother and sister.

“ PRECIOUS PRECIOUS PRECIOUS I will miss you dearly, my dear Mary. She lived a full and disciplined life, but, did it her way. (well, except for the fudge but even that, she did not eat it as much as she really wanted to) It makes me saddened to my core, my heart aches and tears fill my eyes, that I'll not talk w/Mary on this earth again. Before she went on this adventure. She told me her life was full - without regrets and I believe her. The love story of Mary and Hershel, will never get old. He loved her so. Everyone loved Mary. My faith says we will meet again, so be it. To the family, Rhonda and other sisters I haven't met, and her extended family that she loved too Troy, you know, you were blessed to know her. I know I was. We will see her again.with heartfelt sympathy and cyber (((hugs))). Peace be upon you that surpasses all understanding. God is good. His mercys are everlasting. He goes and prepares a dwelling place in a land that never sees a bad day , where folks are rejoicing and happy all the day long. but, I'll miss her.
