“ So sorry to hear about Mary. I am so saddened by this news. I loved her and John. They always took us to church and kept us with them all day every Sunday to play with their boys, Paul, Dale, and little John. They led me to Jesus as a young girl at Opello Baptist Church and I consider them my spiritual parents. They taught me so much in word (and by example) about how to live a godly life and to love others. Mary also taught me about true worship. She will be greatly missed in the body of Christ, but I know she is rejoicing around the throne and forever worshipping the Savior she loved so dearly. My sympathies to John and the boys. John, if you see this, please know I love you and Im so sorry I wasnt there for the funeral. I would have been if I had known. I love you all.
