“ Dear Rodney & Patti,
We were shocked and so sorry to hear of Mary's death. She was such a sweet dear lady who enriched the lives of those who knew her. We know you can never be prepared for the loss of a mother but hope that many treasured memories will flood your mind and heart in the days ahead. Wish we could be with you at the funeral and burial. We will keep you in our prayers! Love, Kirk & Judi

“ So very sorry for your loss. Mary was a wonderful Christian lady and I had the privilege of worshiping with her at Perryville. She will be missed but we know she is just a little closer to heaven than we are and we will meet her again on that great day. Praying GOD will comfort your hearts, REBECCA
