“ *Mary Jo and her brothers were dear childhood friends of my Daddy. That relationship continued throughout their life time and continued to the next generation. The first time I can remember seeing Mary Jo-my first impression was how beautiful and kind she was. When she and Mr. Bill moved to Morrilton, she had beautiful roses in her yard. Our granddaughters would enjoy stopping by to see her flowers.
George and I are extending our Love and Prayers to all the family.*
