“ *Dear Mr. Dalton,
Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the death of Mary. I was saddened to receive your letter about her passing but pleased that her passing was as you said, smooth, quick, and without apparent pain.
Mary was a lovely lady whom we had the pleasure of knowing. I thank you for sending the letter that she wrote to us as well as the picture that she painted. It is gratifying to learn of her continued efforts to improve, up until when she became ill.
Mr. Dalton, thank you for writing to us. I will keep you in my thoughts.

“ Mary was a dear friend to my mother, Avis Yarbrough Clay. A kind spirit and sense of humor, Miss Mary's presence lit up a room. Mom cherished the visits the last few months, and spoke fondly of times past that included Mary.

God Bless you, Sweet Mary, as you reunite in heaven with my mother and other family and friends.

“ You and Mary were so blessed to have those 25 years; and it was evident how much you loved each other every time I saw you. She had such a grace about her! Her physical presence has left us; but her spirit will certainly remain. My prayers are with you.
