“ *Just learned of Mary's passing please accept our sincere condolences
Mary has always been kind...she, Deb and I started seeing each other at the Heart Clinic!
We pray comfort and peace for her family.
We know they have had tough times the past few months! But God is the answer...He will be there for you and we pray you all feel His presence now and in the days ahead!
Many people will miss you Mary, you always had time to listen to our stories!
We will see you one glad morning in that sweet by and by!
