“ Mrs. Ezell will always be "My Fair Lady", as she was elegant and beautiful at all times. I remember at 92 when she told me she didn't take anything but an aspirin and then only if she had to, that it motivated me to try the same, but I wasn't so successful as she. Then later as I came to know her and observe her that she was way out of my league and one of the most cared for people by God I have ever seen. Her grace was His grace watching over her.
