“ It's hard to believe Michael has joined his parents and brother Paul. I remember him a little kid when we would visit our cousins and aunt and uncle every summer. He was such a a cute kid and always the instigator if he and his brother got into "trouble". He dearly loved the farm. It was apparent from an early age. Rest in peace.

“ I am so sorry. I have know Michael all my life. I remember when his family owned the store at Lord's School House. He was so much fun to be around and he was such a good friend to me. Even though it has been awhile since I talked to him but I will never forget him. Just know that the family will be in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
