*I'm so sad to only now be hearing of Mike's passing. I'm sorry I missed the service. I just watched it and it was beautiful.
I loved Mike dearly - he was one of the good ones! He has the best voice, best laugh, and the best stories. I teased him once saying well now I'm your Aunt Amy since at the time, I was married to Missy's Uncle Mike - he just laughed.
Missy, you have my prayers sister. I'm here always if you need anything.*

“ Too many memories to share from growing up with Mike. He was my first cousin but more like a big brother. We played together, he was older than his sister Tracy and I but the three of us rode our bikes, played, fished and went on adventures together all over this hill in Springfield. With the recent snow I had thought of him often, the times we all played and slid down hills in innertubes, snow ball fights and everything else you could do as kids in the snow and ice. When we grew to teenagers Mike grew to have a wonderful singing voice, and so talented with a guitar and with his naturally fun personality was such a good performer. As we all grew older and had our own families to raise we didn't see each other as much but that didn't change how much I loved the guy. The world is less bright without his light in it now.

“ So so sorry for the loss of this gentle man who was so full of talent and always had time to chat. I met Mike many moons ago thru Tim Gentry. They would play music at the bottoms during the National Chuckwagon races. I absolutely loved to listen to him sing. As the years went on, Missy joined the singing. Good times. Lots of talent. Rest high on that mountain Mike. Thanks for the memories. Continuing prayers for you Missy.

“ I was so sad to hear about Mike. We go way back as I , too, was entertained on his daddy's school bus. I can remember his dad giving him THE LOOK in the mirror and how Mike wouldn't miss a beat he'd just be quieter oh what i leaned on that bus!!!! Tracy is one of my best friends and she always kept me in the loop with Mike's shenanigans! I am amazed at how he posted all those videos of him singing. Such a legacy. I am very sorry for the ones he left behind. May yall draw near to the Lord for that's where true peace and comfort will come.
