“ Michael Wise ,As a boy Mickey was the perfect fit for me- going through my teenage nightmares at the time, my life was turbulent and confusing. Going down and staying with, Jim and Susie, James, Tom, and Mickey was a Godsend. Mickey completely captivated me,, heart and all, I loved him so much. Between those blue eyes, bangs, and I can do anything attitude, we sure had some fun. Not only fun, shared moments he had an open and loving spirit and heart. I forgot all about any teenage troubles I had, and just laughed and loved seeing the world through his eyes. The trip to Boston was unforgettable too. He is unforgettable. I will forever be grateful for the love and adventure he shared with me as a boy. He got me to see the lighter side of life and I loved him dearly. A measure of ones life is not based so much on power and dollar figures at the end, but more on how many people's hearts we touched in life . I can tell you he touched mine. I will forever love Michael Wise and never forget the joy, laughter and love he shared with me.All my love and aloha,To Sandy, Mickey and Emily, Jim & SusieJames and Tom,And the extended family.I am so grateful to have known Michael.Love Liz

“ I can't imagine the sadness you must be feeling from your loss. Words seem so inadequate.... Hold tight to memories for comfort, lean on your friends for strength, and always remember how much you are cared about. Many hearts are with you in this time of sorrow. May God give you peace that passes all understanding and cover you with his love. With Love, Machele Tindell

“ Sandy and family, We were shocked and saddened to hear about Mike's death. Please accept our sincere sympathy for your loss. Mike was a great guy and fun to be around. He brought so many happy moments to the job when we worked together and will leave a treasure trove of memories. We will never forget him. Our hearts go out to you and your family during this difficult time. May his spirit experience celestial peace and heavenly bliss. Mike and all of you are in our prayers and thoughts. “ Mike and I went to college together. He was older than the most of us but he jumped right in and made friends with everyone. We took several classes together and his strong efforts pushed me harder to do better. He was definately someone that I looked up to and enjoyed talking with. He made everyone laugh yet he took life a bit more serious than us younger guys. He knew how important an education was. Some years later, I was working at a surveying company in Conway when Mike was hired. I worked with him for about 7 months. He was the hardest worker I've ever met. Mike always got dirty first. We talked about his earlier years in plastering and his family often came up in conversation. Mike passed the LSIT exam (surveying test) I believe the first time. I took that test the same time as he did and while taking it, I would glance over at him to see him working his calculator, all the while wondering what I had got myself into. It was a hard test that I never passed even after multiple tries. I eventually gave up and moved on to something else but never forgot Mike and if I ever saw him out working, I'd drop by and say hi. Occasionally he would stop at my house and catch up. Mike had a strong work ethic, and could make anything happen. The news of his passing took me by suprise, I would sure enjoy talking to him again.

“ Recently, Mike told Ray that he couldn't wait for him to move back to Arkansas. When Ray asked, why, Mike instantly replied that, "everything is always better when you are around". And so it was with you dear boy. And so it was with you.
