“ Bro Willis and Sister B (that's what we always called her) was our pastor family at Bauxite Assembly of God and we loved them all so much. Sister B had such a happy bubbly personality that made you feel so good when you were around her. Although we had not seen her in years and only visited on the phone a few years ago, our memories of her are still there. Our prayers will be with you all during this sad time.

“ Sis Mildred Brothers was at our last service as Pastors at Houston Assembly of God (Houston, Arkansas) on April 7, 2013 even though it took a great effort.

Sis. Mildred Brothers went to be with Jesus yesterday. She was a great blessing to us in so many ways and faithful to all the calling of God as a Minister's Wife, (Her and Rev Willis served some 14 years as pastors at Houston) and she continued to serve her Lord. We will never forget Sister B! Love and Prayers to Donnie Brothers and all the Family in this time of loss. Blessings from Rev Michael & Darlene McDaniel

“ So many memories of Bro. and Sis. B. They were my pastors. I will never forget them coming to Bauxite High School and picking Deb Lemons and Me up and taking us to Youth Convention in Hot Springs. They were wonderful pastors.

“ We were blessed to be ministered to by both Bro. & Sister Brothers at Houston Assembly Of God. They were true and faithful witnesses of what God can do. They helped us to grow in Christ. We know she will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with all their family and Friends. Love Mike & Edra
