“ I know I never got to tell you what a hero you are to me, I know I never got to tell you how tough I thought you were, how I felt so safe having a big brother like you, I know I never got the chance to laugh, cry and do many other things with you, but in the time we did get to spend together..I know there was a great bond, a great similarity, an unspoken connection and I know that you loved me very much. You wrote me & drew me pictures and always had my back. Gave me advice about life that is imprinted into my heart and mind forever. I even got a Tat that says Respect, just for you. You know why I got that. You remember that talk and that day you pulled me out of all the trouble I was in. You were there to save me right away like the hero you were and always will be to me! I love you big brother! And I pass on all of your courage, strength, wisdom and kindness on to your son, but I won't have to try very hard, because he is already JUST LIKE YOU. Thank you for leaving us such a precious gift, we all love you very much. Especially, Louis Benjamin McGrew. You are in our hearts forever!
