

Nora "Louise" Hubbard

July 4, 1935 - November 29, 2023

Nora "Louise" Hubbard, 88, of Morrilton, peacefully passed from this life at home on Wednesday, November 29th. She was born July 4th, 1935 to Roy and Sylvia Condley McCuin. In 1951 she would marry Dewey Hubbard with whom she would share 50 wonderful years before his passing. Louise worked for Levi's but was most known for her more than 30 years as a Wal-Mart associate. She was a member of Smith Springs Baptist Church. She spent many years supporting her church as a deacon's wife. Affectionately known to many as Granny Lou, she will be missed by those who loved and cherished her greatly.

Other than her parents and husband, she is preceded in death by a daughter and son-in-law, Bonnie and Frank Matchett; two brothers, Donald and Harrell McCuin; and one great-great-grandson, Westyn Matchett.

Survivors include her son, Levan Hubbard of Hot Springs Village; six grandchildren, Steve Matchett of Morrilton, Becky Matchett (Moses) of Morrilton, Vicki Conner (Drew) of Star City, Hollie Casper (Jason) of New York, Heath Hubbard (Joni) of Tokyo Japan, and Haylee Hubbard of New York; eleven great-grandchildren; and five great-great-grandchildren; two sisters, Alene Coffman of Little Rock and Anna Coffman of Russellville; one brother, Bill McCuin of Plano, Texas; along with many other special relatives.

Pallbearers will be Steve Matchett, Heath Hubbard, Drew Conner, Blake Matchett, Bryce Matchett, Michael Guinn, Ryan Conner and Moses Clark.

The family will have visitation from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. on Sunday, at the Harris

Chapel with services being on Monday, December 4, at Smith Springs Baptist Church at 10:00 a.m. Memorials can be made to Smith Springs Free Will Baptist Church Building fund, 40 Smith Springs Rd Morrilton AR, 72110. Burial will be at Aunt Dilly Cemetery.
