“ To the entire family, my deepest condolences. Though I hadn't seen Opal in many years the memory of visiting her home when I was a child is still vivid. Words mean very little right now, but may you find comfort knowing that she has arms wrapped around her now, that love her even more than you do! For He created her for you to love and enjoy all these years. My prayers are with you all.

“ Grandma Wayne...you continued to teach me about myself and other people even through your death. I will miss the very special times we shared, but, I will carry your abiity to love others with me for the rest of my life. I am definitely my grandmother's grand-daughter and for that, I am soooo very thankful. You were an amazing woman and your legacy will be amazing in me. So thankful to have another angel who looks down on me and shines through me in this life. I love you :)
