“ Thank you for the invitation to be reminded of someone who was always such a pleasant gentleman to and around me. Gregg, I've known you since you were a kiddo and want you to always remember your father loving you with all his heart and what great pride he must have had for his grandchildren - don't ever forget his love for you. Anyone could recognize it. Patty, Jay, and the rest of the Barnes family..I know it's hard and you all have my deepest sympathy for the loss of Phil.

“ My heart goes out to you Steve & your nephew Gregg. Phillip was a good and gentle spirited guy, easy to love and fun to be around. He always made me laugh and that's how I plan to remember him. You've both been in my thoughts and prayers and I hope you've found comfort in knowing that he's, at last, free, happy and at peace.

For the loss of someone you love.
This sorrowful time must still feel unreal
And youre looking for strength from above.*
