“ I was Sean's friend and roommate in college. I was farther away from home than Sean and he often took me home with him to Perryville. His entire family were so wonderful to me. They made me feel like I was a member of the family. Rachel made me feel like one of the gang. She always made sure that I was included in conversations and outings with people I hardly knew. She was so funny and had such a charismatic spirit. I will cherish those memories of those college weekends home for the rest of my days. Thank you Rachel and family. You will be missed. God bless you.

Rachel was loved by so many and once what everyone enjoyed they will can never lose. Because her beautiful smile and memories they will carry in their hearts forever. Rachel was a great loss for her family and all that knew her. May God give Rachel eternal peace and the family the strength to get through this difficult and sad time. “ When I think of Rachel I think of her smile. It would light up the world! I think anyone that saw her rather they knew her or not would think the same thing. There are no words to say that can make the pain of losing someone go away, but know that she was so loved by so many people! Heaven gained one heck of a strong angel. Love and prayers for your family. Casey Jo Myers.
