“ Terry and I send our sympathy to Reece's family. We met him 20 years ago when we started attending Bigelow Baptist Church, and we soon became friends. He had a wealth of knowledge of the history of Bigelow, including the people and places of interest. He took us on a four-wheeling excursion along the river, which included getting stuck in the mud! He loved to share his interest in rocks and making jewelry from precious stones. He was truly a wonderful man, and we will miss him.
